MSI Warranty Policies and Conditions

The terms and conditions of MSI's warranty described herein apply to the products sold by the Australian Computer & Communications Corporation ("ACC"), in addition to the specific provisions under the Australian Consumer Law ("ACL"). Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a refund or replacement or for a major failure and for compensation for any other reasonable foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be acceptable quality or to last for a reasonable period of time.

(1) Determination of the warranty period: The warranty period starts from the date you purchase the product with valid invoice. If the first date of the warranty period is not the date of purchase, the following date shall be the date of the warranty period.

(2) Customer-Induced Defect (CID): The product or warranty is excluded if the product is damaged or defective in a way that is not covered by the warranty. The Company assumes no responsibility for any damage or defect caused by the customer's misuse or improper use of the product.

(3) Limited warranty: The software is not pre-installed, it is not covered under the Product's warranty. The Company assumes no responsibility for any damage or defect caused by the customer's misuse or improper use of the product.

(4) Screen the problems by self-checking: Please first review the User's Manual and contents of the Software CD included with the Product. The User's Manual and Software-Check by MSI containing a lot of information about product use. The manual we compose from user's perspective can answer many of your questions. If your product has been determined by the product or store as defective or defective in a way that is not covered by the warranty, please contact MSI Australia Pty at the following: Live 10, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Email: australia@msi.com
