MSI Warranty Procedures and Conditions

The terms and conditions of MSI's warranty described herein adhere to the guidelines set forth by the Australian Competition & Consumer Commission ("ACCC"), in addition to the applicable provisions under the Australian Consumer Law ("ACL").

Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or repair for a major failure and for compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You also are entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure.

(1) Determination of the warranty period.

The warranty period starts from the date you purchase the product with valid invoice. If the last day of the warranty period is a national holiday, the following day shall be the last day of the warranty period.

(2) Customer-Induced-Defect (CID):

If the problem or symptoms are compatible with improper usage defined as Customer-Induced-Defect (CID), CID shall not be accepted in warranty claim of the product. MSI reserves the right to determine whether the products are operated within the scope of proper usage.

(3) Limited warranty for software:

The software not presented is not covered within the MSI's warranty. The Company assumes no responsibility for any software subsequently installed by the customer itself and any possible consequential breakdown or damage.

(4) Screen the problems by self-checking:

- Please first review the User's Manual and Contents of the Software CD included with the Product. The User's Manual and Software CD provided by MSI containing a lot of information about product use. The manual we composed from user's perspective can answer many of your questions.

(5) Return the product to the original store of purchase:

If you cannot seek any help for the problem of the above mentioned, you may seek support from the original store of purchase, because the original store of purchase should know your system configuration, installation, and can provide you with the necessary resources and parts.

(6) Bring the Product to the original store of purchase:

If your product has been determined by the MSI engineer or store as problematic or defective in hardware, and may incur the need for replacement of parts, you may bring the product to repair or replacement to the original store of purchase and let the Product to repair or replacement on the customer's expense. The customer must ensure the product when delivered for repair, to be returned in the course of shipping.

(7) Warranty receipt:

The valid invoice of your purchase should be provided for the warranty servicing.
